CAPTAIN MURRAY PASSES AWAY

Succumbs to Sarcoma After a
Long Illness—Funeral
Today.

Timothy Bartholomew Murray, well known for the past twenty years in this city, died at his residence, Anapuni street, yesterday morning. Death was caused by sarcoma of the peritoneum, as developed by the autopsy, held by

THE LATE T. B. MURRAY.

Dr. Taylor. The burial will take place today from Harmony Hall, at 2:30 p. m.

Captain "Tim" Murray was born fifty years ago in Brooklyn, N. Y., and early learned the trade of a blacksmith and carriage maker. Twenty-five years ago he left the East and settled down in California. He worked in Oakland, living in San Francisco, until 1880, when he turned his attention to the Islands, coming to this city to enter the employment of the Hawaiian Carriage Company. He once went to San Francisco for a short stay, but soon returned, and lived here continuously until his death.

Captain Murray was always interested in politics as a staunch Republican, and after the revolution of 1887 he entered the field here. He was prominent in the Mechanics' Union, and later, in 1893, formed and was president of the American League. During the overthrow he was first Lieutenant of Co. A under Captain, now Major Zeigler, and was very active in the work. Later he left the troops and organized a company in the Citizens Guard, and in 1895 he organized Co. H of the militia, which he commanded until recently. He also was active in the Annexation Club.

Captain Murray was taken ill in May last, and then turned over his business to his son Harry. Since that time he has grown steadily worse, losing flesh rapidly until the end came. He leaves a widow and six children, two sons and four daughters.

The funeral will be in charge of Harmony Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F., and Company H will act as escort. Six officers of the regiment will act as pall bearers and as many lodge brothers will be honorary bearers as well. The funeral will be held from the lodge room.

Guest in a Quandary.

Charles E. Guest, of the Honolulu office of Milliken Brothers of New York City, was surprised to find in his mail yesterday a letter from the judicial department of New York's municipality, forwarded by his mother, that unless he obeyed the jury summons served against his name by February 21 he would be fined $50. As yesterday was February 23 Mr. Guest is somewhat in a quandary as to just how he stands with the particular court which wants to utilize his services in the jury stall. Mr. Guest has not been in New York for nearly three years although that is his former residence. The peremptory order was evidently issued because Mr. Guest's name is still retained in the directory.

Eastern Man—"I see in the newspapers that Californians anticipate a cold winter this year, and merchants have ordered stocks of fur-lined overcoats. What kind of weather did you have last winter in the Golden State?" California Man—"Well, it was pretty cold sometimes, remarkably cold for California." Eastern Man—"Shouldn't wonder, considering the blizzards we had here." California Man—"Yes, sir; most severe winter we've had in California for years. Why, sir, there were some mornings when the winter boarders actually called for hot coffee and waffles, instead oficed tea and frozen oranges."—New York Weekly.
